Learn to swim lessons operate during school terms and holiday intensive programs are offered during school holidays.

Mornings are generally for babies and newer learners, and afternoons are generally for school age or students who have progressed through the first few levels (flexibility of these lessons is at the coordinator's discretion).

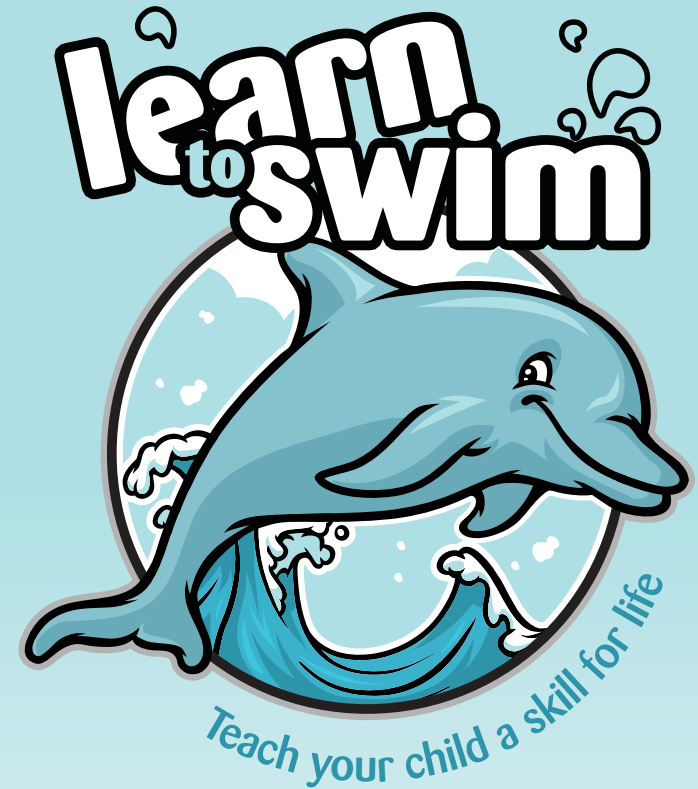

Morning lessons are held between 9.00am and 12.30pm
Afternoon lessons are held between 3.00pm and 7.00pm

Teach your child a skill for life.

About your instructors

Our learn to swim program is run in a friendly, fun and professional manner by our Austswim accredited instructors. This means your instructor has the training to provide a positive contribution to a child's physical, psychological, social and emotional growth.

Turning up to lessons

Turn up to your lesson 5 minutes prior to start. Bring your swimmers, towel, goggles (not compulsory) and swimming cap (not compulsory). Students with long hair should wear hair bands. Any of these items can be purchased at the kiosk at a reasonable price. Safe footwear is also advised for entering and exiting the facilities.

Terms and conditions

- Learn to Swim is purchased by the term in advance, and is valid only for the relevant term for which it is purchased. There are no 'carry-overs' to another term.
- Payments are made in advance – one term program per child (ie not one program shared between 2 or 3 children). Where there is more than one child in a family, application may be made to make payments a fortnight in advance, per child.
- There are no refunds or credits given for the following:
 - unused lessons at the end of a term
 - holidays, trips, school camps or strike days etc...
 - mised lessons
 - cancellation of a terms booking once the term has begun (except by written submission for special consideration to the Manager of the Aquatic Centres – a $25 fee applies).
- Application for credits or make up lessons due to exceptional circumstances may be made to the Manager of the Aquatic Centres. Up to a maximum of 2 make-up lessons per term will be permitted, and only if there are vacancies in existing lessons. It is the responsibility of the user to find out when the space is available and to book themselves in.
- If a patron is not able to attend any available make up lessons, they forfeit that lesson.
- If the centre is only notified on the day of the lesson that a student will not be attending their lesson, a make up will only be issued when /if there are spare spaces in existing lessons. It is the responsibility of the user to contact find out when the space is available and to book themselves in.
- There will be no make up or credits granted for missed make up lessons.
- If the Manager of the Aquatic Centres has approved a special refund or credit, it will be issued at the Manager's discretion, in the form of a cheque or an authorised credit on the customer's membership for use on lessons only.
