NSW Companion Animals Register Change of Owner / Details

Please use this form to change the ownership of your cat or dog. There is no fee to change ownership details.

The details marked # are optional. All other information is required under the Companion Animals Act 1998 and Regulation 2008.

It is the responsibility of the 'old' owner – the person selling or giving away the animal – to notify the change. Failure to do so may result in a fine of up to $880 or up to $5500 for a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog.

Note: This form does not Lifetime Register the animal. You need to check with your council to find out if the animal needs to be lifetime registered.

Please use black pen and block letters

What happens now

The person from whom you have just purchased this animal should give you the pink copy of this form. They must send the yellow copy of this form to any local council within 3 days. Once the information has been entered on the Register you should receive a Certificate recording your details as the new owner.

Only authorised people, such as council staff and police, can access the information on the NSW Companion Animals Register and only to enforce the Companion Animals Act 1998.

If you are concerned that disclosure of your information could jeopardise the safety of you or your family, you may request that these details be suppressed. If this is the case, we recommend that you do not list your animal on any private databases. Please contact any NSW local council for more information.

This information is collected on behalf of the Office of Local Government, and is held on the NSW Companion Animals Register.

What to do if there are errors on the Certificate

You can correct or update the information on your animal's Certificate by contacting any local council. You may need to provide written proof before council can amend your record.

Council will provide you with a new Certificate once the changes have been processed.

What to do if circumstances change

If circumstances change, you need to notify any local council to update your animal's record within a certain period of time. You may need to take a copy of your Certificate or a copy of this form to the council.

Some examples of changed circumstances are:

- change of ownership, either sold or given away the 'old' owner must notify a council within 14 days
- change of address within 14 days
- change of any other of the animal's details eg. is desexed within 14 days
- a court declaration that a dog is dangerous or menacing is made or revoked – within 7 days
- the animal dies within 28 days
- the animal is missing for more than 72 hours within 96 hours after the animal went missing

If you don't notify any of these changes or you give false or misleading information, you may be fined up to $880 or up to $5,500 for a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog.

What to do if you sell or give away this animal

Before selling or giving away your animal, you should get a copy of the 'Change of Owner Details C3A' form from any local council. The form is also available on our website at www.olg.nsw.gov.au. Both you and the new owner will have to complete and sign the form.

As the 'old' owner you have the responsibility of sending the completed form to any local council within 14 days. You will need to attach a copy of this form or your Certificate to the 'Change of Owner Details' form.
