STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE Historically the building is of local significance for its role in the provision of Secondary School education in Muswellbrook in the early decades of the 20th century. The building has local aesthetic significance for its design and local social significance to many generations of publicly-educated Muswellbrook citizens. Scientifically the building is of local significance for its potential to reveal information which could lead to an understanding of the scale of demand for Secondary School education in Muswellbrook in the 1930's and the role of the state in attending to local needs then and over the ensuing sixty years.
