Foreword

A MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

As the concept of energy transition in the Hunter moves from theory to reality the crux of this Community Strategic Plan is to develop a comprehensive and well-co-ordinated strategy that brings together all levels of government, local business and the community to attract investment and new employment opportunities.

In 2021 the State Government announced a $25 million Royalties for Rejuvenation fund to drive job creation and provide support to our communities as they move to a clean energy economy over the coming decades. The Hunter Joint Organisation, representing ten of the region's Council's, including Muswellbrook Shire Council, is advocating for the creation of the Hunter 2050 Foundation to also work towards attracting new industries and opportunities as thermal coal mining is scaled down.

In the coming decade Muswellbrook Shire Council will foster the moves towards new industries such as renewable energy, bioresources and intensive agriculture and support the growth of existing viticulture and equine industries. Diversification of the economy will be achieved by building on the strengths of the region – a skilled workforce and existing infrastructure assets.

The Community Strategic Plan sets a clear direction, reflecting community expectations, for job creation, education opportunities, revitalisation of the town centre and improved liveability. Council will continue its focus on promoting, improving and expanding the many existing attractions in the Shire.

Collaboration with the University of Newcastle will see further research and development opportunities evolve while the Donald Horne Building, stage two of the Tertiary Education Centre, will house the Upper Hunter Innovation Hub and "makerspace", a prototyping facility combining engineering capability, equipment and business mentoring skills for students, entrepreneur's and start-ups.

This plan is a culmination of consultation and careful planning. Council thanks the General Manager and Council staff for the preparation of the Community Strategic Plan and commends the document to the community.

Steve Reynolds

Mayor,
Muswellbrook Shire Council

Introduction

A MESSAGE FROM THE GENERAL MANAGER

The Community Strategic Plan (CSP) is the highest-level plan that Council prepares on behalf of the community. The purpose of the plan is to capture and define the community's main priorities and aspirations for the future of the Shire, devise strategies and identify partnerships for achieving these goals. The CSP guides all other Council strategies and plans and is reviewed by Council with, and on behalf of, the community at the beginning of each new term of Council.

The minimum timeframe for the CSP is 10 years and it addresses 4 key questions:

1. Where are we now?
2. Where do we want to be in 10 years?
3. How will we get there?
4. How will we know we have arrived?

The answers to these questions assist Council to understand the community's vision, values, opportunities and challenges, while establishing baseline targets, strategies and measures to guide performance monitoring and reporting.

Addressing the quadruple bottom line of social, environmental, economic and civic leadership issues in an integrated manner, the CSP is based on social justice principles of equity, access, participation and rights.

The Community's goals outlined in the Muswellbrook Shire Community Strategic Plan 2022 - 2032 are informed by, and aligned with the priorities and actions endorsed in the Premier's Priorities, as well as the NSW State Plan and other NSW Government plans to grow the economy, deliver infrastructure, protect the vulnerable, reduce human impacts on the environment and improve health, education and public services across NSW.

Specific elements of those goals are also aligned with the strategic objectives identified in the / Hunter Regional Plan 2041 which will guide the delivery of greater prosperity and connectivity for communities across the Hunter region, including those in the Muswellbrook Shire.

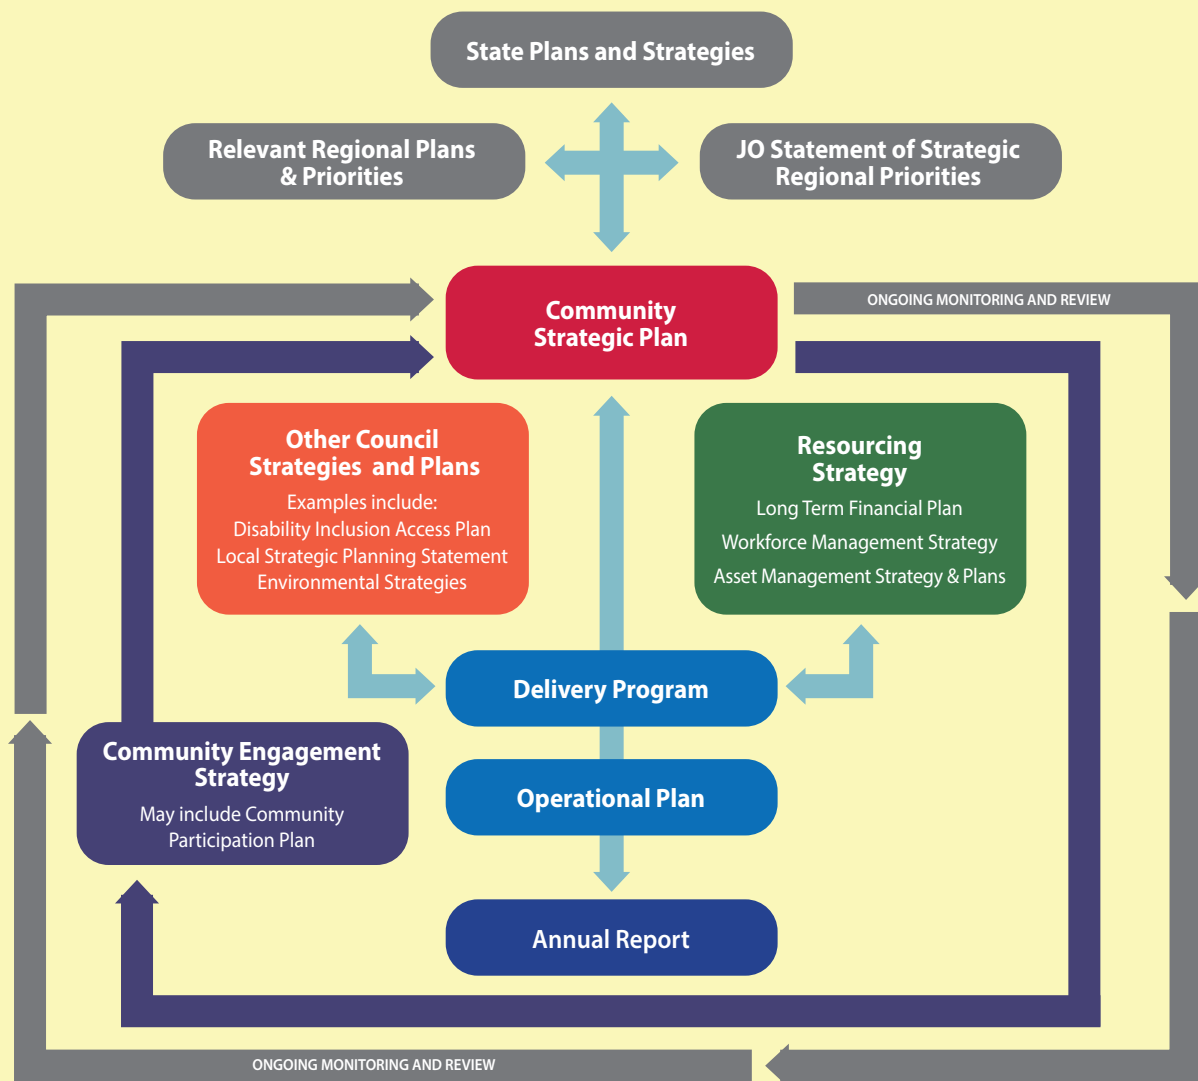

Fiona Plesman

General Manager,
Muswellbrook Shire Council

The Integrated Planning and Reporting Cycle

The Integrated Planning and Reporting (IP&R) framework was established in 2009 by the New South Wales Government. This legislation requires all Councils to have the following plans developed in consultation with the community:

Integrated Planning & Reporting Framework

The Community Strategic Plan (10 year)

The Community Strategic Plan is an overview document that identifies the community's vision and goals for the future. It covers a minimum time frame of 10 years. Council's role is initiating, preparing and maintaining the Community Strategic Plan on behalf of the community, however Council is not wholly responsible for its implementation. Other partners, including state agencies, non-government organisations, business and industry, joint organisations and community groups may also have a part to play in enacting the strategies identified within the Plan.

The Delivery Program (4 year)

The Delivery Program is a four-year plan. It is the point of reference for all activities undertaken by the Council during the Councillors' term of office. The Delivery Program details the activities Council will undertake over a four-year period, which align with and support the goals and strategies identified by the community and outlined in the Community Strategic Plan.

Resourcing Strategy

The Resourcing Strategy demonstrates how Council will resource achievement of the Community Strategic Plan and Delivery Program. Council's Long Term Financial Plan, Asset Management Plan and Workforce Management Plan have been developed to explain how Council intends to resource the activities identified in the Delivery Program and the Community Strategic Plan goals. The Delivery Program also allocates responsibilities for each activity and it identifies suitable performance measures for determining the effectiveness of the activities undertaken.

The Operational Plan (annual)

The Operational Plan is a sub-plan of the Delivery Program. It directly addresses the activities outlined in the Delivery Program and identifies specific actions, projects and programs Council will be undertaking within the current financial year and allocates a corresponding budget commitment.

Annual Report

The Annual Report is one of the key means by which Council reports on its progress to the community. It focuses on Council's implementation of the Delivery Program and Operational Plan because these are the plans that are wholly Council's responsibility.

3.1 OUR SHIRE

Muswellbrook Shire is located within the Gamilaraay Indigenous Nation, one of the four largest Indigenous nations in Australia.

Muswellbrook Shire acknowledges that the local Aboriginal People are the Traditional Owners and Custodians of the land.

The first white settlement occurred in the 1820s and the township of Muswellbrook was gazetted in 1833.

Muswellbrook Shire is centrally located in the Upper Hunter Valley, approximately 130km north-west of Newcastle. By road, Muswellbrook is approximately three hours from Sydney, two hours from Tamworth and around 90 minutes from Newcastle.

The Shire consists of two larger towns, Muswellbrook and Denman, as well as a number of outlying rural communities including Sandy Hollow, Wybong, Baerami, Martindale, McCully's Gap, Widden and Muscle Creek.

The boundaries of the Local Government Area (LGA) are marked by Lake Liddell to the east, Goulburn River National Park to the west, Wollemi National Park to the south and bordering Aberdeen in the north.

A surprising fact to many is that 1,455km – or 43% – of Muswellbrook Shire's 3,402km² land coverage is national park. This includes the World Heritage Wollemi National Park.

We are a young community with a rising population

Muswellbrook Shire is a welcoming community offering all the cultural, recreational, educational and community facilities that you would expect to find in a city. It is the main regional centre for the Upper Hunter. The population of Muswellbrook Local Government Area (LGA) is concentrated in the towns of Sandy Hollow, Denman and Muswellbrook.

The estimated residential population for Muswellbrook (LGA) in 2020 was 16,355 people (ABS). This is up from 15,793 in 2016. Council anticipates low to modest population growth, in the short to medium term, associated with the planned closures of Liddell and Bayswater power stations offset by some diversification in the local economy.

The average population of the Muswellbrook LGA has reflected the ebbs and flows of the mining industry. Annual population growth over the last decade, 2006 to 2016, was 5.3% - a steady rise for a regional area. The majority of this growth has concentrated in Muswellbrook, which accounted for around half the growth. However, the 2016 census showed that growth overall since 2011 has only been 1.9%.

The 2016 census indicated that Muswellbrook Shire has a relatively high proportion of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples residing in the community at 8.3%. This compares with the 2.9% NSW State average.

Muswellbrook Shire tends to be a younger community with the median age of people being 36.9 years, compared to 37.9 for NSW.

In 2020 our population consisted of 22.6% aged 0-14 years compared with NSW at 18.5%; while 63.4% were aged 15-64 years compared with NSW at 64.8% and 14.1% aged 65 years and over compared to 16.7% across the State.

The ratio of men to women in 2020 was 51.4% and 48.6% female.

3.4 FEDERAL, STATE AND REGIONAL CONTEXT

For the past 50 years, the Shire's economy has been closely linked to the ebbs and flows of the energy industry and, in particular, the international thermal coal industry and the domestic power industry. When the 2012-2022 Community Strategic Plan was adopted, the general focus had been on managing the rapid tripling in size of the thermal coal industry over the forward decade. The Community's focus had been on air quality and dust management, visual impacts, housing supply, childcare and health services.

Since that time there has been increasing uncertainty in the long-term future of the thermal coal mining industry, coal-fired power generation industry and associated jobs. AGL has announced closure dates for both local power stations (Liddell in 2023 and Bayswater by 2033) and regionally, Origin Energy has announced the closure of Australia's largest coal-fired power plant seven years earlier than scheduled, with the Eraring facility in the lower Hunter now set to close in 2025. Accordingly, the 2017-2027 Community Strategic Plan reflected the shift in community focus to jobs, economic diversification, access to education and skills development and progressive mined-land rehabilitation.

At a time of rapid change, against the backdrop of an ongoing global pandemic and multiple natural disasters across Australia, the Federal Government is prioritising:

1. economic recovery by: investing in skills; increasing training places; supporting apprenticeships; boosting workforce participation; assisting vulnerable unemployed Australians into jobs; developing digital skills and investing in emerging technologies; and helping regional economies to grow and thrive;
2. achieving net zero emissions by 2050 by: taking advantage of new economic opportunities while continuing to serve traditional markets; and prioritising technologies to help Australia cut emissions while creating jobs and growing the economy

While acknowledging that mining will remain important to the State economy, the NSW Government is promoting high-growth areas such as advanced manufacturing, tech-innovation, medicine, education and tourism. The NSW 2040 Economic Blueprint outlines the NSW Government's priorities for:

- › innovative businesses and industries of the future;
- › an economy that is diversified in favour of fast-growing industries and services;
- › a high standard of living for a healthy, well-educated population that is skilled for the high-income jobs of the future;
- › productive and growing regions with world-class infrastructure and transport links;
- › biodiverse environments preserved for future generations, with reliable and affordable energy sources and enhanced water resilience across the State.

Closer to home, the DRAFT Hunter Regional Plan 2041 promotes:

- › the concept of a '15-minute region', where access to jobs and services should be met within a short walk, bike-ride or car trip - in response to the effect of the COVID-19 on the way that people live and work;
- › the Hunter's sustainable transition to net zero emissions by diversifying employment, mining and energy generation lands to support economic renewal and innovation and open opportunities for renewal and change to new land uses;
- › economic self-determination and greater recognition of traditional custodians and respect for Aboriginal cultural knowledge;
- › net zero emissions as a guiding principle for all planning decisions and a renewed focus on green infrastructure, public spaces and nature to improve quality of life.

Accordingly, the 2022-2032 Community Strategic Plan recognises the community's continued focus on challenges and opportunities identified in previous community strategic plans, while also acknowledging that the Shire's fortunes are tied to regional, state and federal contexts.

3.5 STRATEGIC RISKS, CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

Building Economic Resilience

Muswellbrook Shire Council acknowledges both the long-term transition of the thermal coal industry and the closure and transition of coal-fired power generation and is committed to broadening the focus on the sustainability of the Shire's economic and employment base. Our region is rich in natural resources with significant mining, viticulture and equine sectors and the opportunity to attract new enterprise.

Mining

Muswellbrook Shire's long association with mining began in the late 1800s with the commencement of the first underground coal mine. Open cut coal mining has had a presence since 1944 and is the largest employer in the Shire today, with over 30 percent of the workforce engaged in the resources sector. The Shire is home to Muswellbrook Coal, which commenced operations in 1906 and is Australia's longest continuously operating coal mine. The owner of the soon-to-close mine, the Australian arm of Japanese company Idemitsu, has unveiled a masterplan for the Muswellbrook site that will see it converted into an industrial hub with a total of four renewable energy projects and related training facilities. All mining operations, including at Mt Arthur, Bengalla, Mangoola, Mt Pleasant and Dartbrook, contribute $4,860.5 million or 75.8% of the Shire's total regional exports.

Power Generation

AGL Macquarie is one of the country's biggest energy producers. The company's Liddell and Bayswater power stations are based in the Muswellbrook Shire and employ over 600 workers. Between them, the power stations generate enough electricity to power over three million homes each year and produce around 30 percent of the State's electricity.

AGL has announced its intention to close the Liddell power station by 2023 and in February 2022 announced that the closure of the Bayswater power station would be brought forward to no later than 2033. AGL and Council are working closely together to minimise the challenges and maximise the opportunities that will arise from a transition to renewable energy generation in the Shire in order to contribute to the further diversification of our regional, state and national economy.

Education

Muswellbrook is strategically positioned for the efficient and effective provision of education and vocational training for both existing and emerging industries. Council has worked closely with Hunter TAFE, the University of Newcastle and industry to promote and provide higher learning pathways for local and visiting students, offer collaborative research opportunities with established and new industries and support the diversification of the Shire's economy.

Hunter TAFE and Council collaborated to construct the Tertiary Education Centre in the Muswellbrook Town Centre to facilitate higher education delivery. During the past term of Council, it expanded to house the University of Newcastle and works are progressing on the construction of the next stage of the Centre.

Driven by the community's expectations, Council is working with industry and the research sector to identify new opportunities and reduce the Shire's future dependency on a mining dominated local economy. Council is fostering the transition towards new industries such as renewable energy, bioresources and intensive agriculture, while continuing to support the growth of our existing viticulture and equine industries. The diversification of our economy can be achieved by promoting and building on the strengths of the region with our skilled workforce and existing infrastructure assets.

Thoroughbred Industry

The origins of the Upper Hunter's thoroughbred breeding industry date back over 150 years and have earned a global reputation for excellence and success. It is one of only three International Centres of Thoroughbred Breeding Excellence. The others are Kentucky, USA and Newmarket, UK.

The Hunter Valley's landscape, soil, air, water availability and specialised workforce makes the Shire an ideal location for the horse breeding industry. This combination ensures that nearly half of all the thoroughbred bloodstock born in Australia come from this area.

Muswellbrook Shire is home to the largest critical mass of thoroughbred rearing in Australia, with a total employment in the vicinity of 200 people located in an arc from Widden Valley through Sandy Hollow to Jerry's Plains. Two of the largest thoroughbred horse studs in the southern hemisphere are located in the Muswellbrook Shire.

Viticulture Industry

Local wine is high quality and integral to the Upper Hunter food and wine offering and while the Upper Hunter viticulture industry is small, it is an internationally acclaimed wine tourism destination renowned for its quality and the volume of wine production and processing.

The earliest evidence of grape growing in the Upper Hunter dates back to 1860 when vines were planted at the meeting of Wybong Creek and the Goulburn River. The wine from these grapes gained international recognition and established a proud tradition for the Upper Hunter as a centre for wine production that continues today.

Government Services

As the principal regional centre of the Upper Hunter, Muswellbrook is the location of several regional agency offices of the State and Federal Government including the Hunter New England Local Health District, Corrective Services, Juvenile Justice, Department of Family and Community Services, NSW Police Local Area Command and the Department of Human Services.

Centrally located between New England and Lower Hunter, Muswellbrook Shire provides an excellent geographical advantage. This has established it as the regional centre of the Upper Hunter, allowing government agencies to efficiently service the surrounding areas.

Tourism

Muswellbrook Shire is home to a significant proportion of the equine and wine industries in the Upper Hunter Region, along with boutique producers of olives, cheese, camel milk and other products. A key location advantage for the Shire as a tourist destination is its proximity to the already popular tourist destinations such as the Lower Hunter and the Blue Mountains. In addition, the New England and the Golden Highways, along with Bylong Valley Way are used as arteries to the New England, Central West and Lower Hunter.

The total value of output from accommodation and food services for Muswellbrook is estimated at $75.3 million, which is 0.9% of total output. The total related employment estimate for the Shire was 505 jobs, which represents 5% of the total workforce.

Most visitors to the region are from NSW. Similarly, in the previous two years Sydney was the largest source of visitors to the region, followed by regional NSW and Queensland.

4. Community Engagement

Over the past 5-year term (2016 – 2021), Council has consulted and engaged with Shire communities and stakeholders to inform the review of this Community Strategic Plan and the entire suite of Council's new integrated planning documents. Community members have been invited to share their attitudes and ideas about a wide-range of local issues, including their level of satisfaction with Council's services and facilities and their perceptions of the major challenges and opportunities affecting the region's future via:

- › 6 random and statistically representative telephone surveys;
- › 2 Community Panels;
- › 1 online survey;
- › (add public exhibition period engagement schedule)

What the community has told Council:

Overall satisfaction with Council has fallen over the past term to 26% in 2021 after reaching a peak satisfaction rate of 44 % in 2017 (see Figure x). In 2021 the majority of respondents struggled to pinpoint a reason for their satisfaction or dissatisfaction score, with 18% indicating that there was 'room for improvement' and a further 18% stating that 'Council do a good job'. Where specific issues were identified, the top concerns were:

- › poor community engagement (13%),
- › 'problems with roads/parking' (7%), and
- › 'rates are too high' (6%).

Overall Satisfaction with Council 2016 - 2021

In light of ongoing debate about the Shire's economic future, in 2021 Council asked respondents: Some people think the Muswellbrook Shire should continue to focus on coal mining for its future prosperity, while others think it should be trying to diversify into other industries. Which category do you fall into?

Some people think the Muswellbrook Shire should continue to focus on coal mining for its future prosperity, while others think it should be trying to diversify into other industries. Which category do you fall into?

Some other noteworthy findings included:

- › The proportion of residents agreeing that “there are good employment prospects for locals” in Muswellbrook has risen 35% since the survey in 2016, while agreement that “I feel safe walking in my local streets at night” increased by 9%;
- › When asked how Council should spend a hypothetical $5m windfall, residents focussed predominantly on the need for additional youth facilities and services. Roads and parking were the second most-mentioned item, along with community events and facilities, and enhanced sporting facilities;
- › Major perceived opportunities for the Shire in 2021 included additional retail (13%), more coal mining (10%), agriculture and agribusiness (7%), and new energy sources (6%).
- › The largest challenges identified by respondents included the uncertain future of the coal industry and coal-fired power generation (28%) and related job insecurity or unemployment (16%).

Following is a list of Council's stakeholder groups, including how we engage and communicate with them and why our relationships are important.

5.3 COMMUNITY VALUES

We value:

5.4 COUNCIL'S ROLE AND SERVICES

Local Government is the most responsive, agile and community driven level of government in Australia. Council, as the local government authority, is responsible for day-to-day community services and infrastructure, ranging from kerbside bin collection, local roads and the public swimming pools in Denman and Muswellbrook to the provision of water and sewer across the Shire. Council also operates the Regional Art Centre, the Denman Memorial Hall, libraries and other cultural activities for residents and visitors alike.

It is important to distinguish between local government (Council) and the State and Federal governments that have responsibility for other services (see Figure xx). The Federal Government is responsible for defence, trade, foreign affairs and the collection and distribution of tax, whereas the State Government looks after schools, hospitals, public transport and national parks.

Federal Government	State Government	Local Government (Council)
immigration	local governments	water and sewerage services*
foreign affairs	education (schools)	rubbish collection and recycling
quarantine	health (hospitals)	local roads maintenance
defence	public transport (buses and trains)	parking
trade	public housing	footpaths and cycleways
